

1 Her most embarrassing trip:

It was over Bess Myerson's long Miss America cape. As her page, Vicki Gold Levi was supposed to hold it up from the back to prevent such mishaps. After successfully doing this many times, Gold Levi says her one-time trip was unfortunately captured forever on film by Movietone News.

2 Experience with the high-diving horse:

Well, almost. They were looking for a rider. Gold Levi showed up for the tryout, but knew she had set her sights too high when she was too afraid to take the plunge — even without the horse.

3 What makes her A.C. necklace so charming:

Gold Levi has a silver charm necklace commemorating some of Atlantic City's most famous attractions. It was made for her by jewelry designer Paula Jerome, who lived in Absecon, but vacationed in Atlantic City as a kid. Included are miniatures of Lucy the Elephant, a jitney, a rolling chair, a wrapped piece of James' salt water taffy, an Atlantic City postcard and a bathing beauty.
